Introductory

The Christian Annual seeks each year to record the doings of the local churches, conferences, denominational secretaries, and boards. It gathers the statistics of the Christian Church, and places them at the disposal of the church, and its workers.

The accuracy of The Christian Annual depends almost entirely upon the faithfulness and painstaking effort of church clerks and conference secretaries. Some of them take a great deal of pride in their work, and render a service that cannot be overestimated in value. They are accurate, every detail is secured, and they realize the permanency of their work. Others would likely do so, if they could fully understand the importance of this work. They have not fully considered what The Christian Annual means to a pastor, to the churches, and to the conferences, denominational officials, and lay church workers.

The Christian Annual is the church's year book, and is sought by other denominations, by national research organizations, by interdenominational agencies, public, state, university, and national libraries, and various other important agencies. From it they learn who we are, what we actually do, and what contribution we make to the service of God. Our record should be true.

Each clerk in a church, and in every organization of the church, each conference and departmental secretary, helps to turn statistics into spiritual life and Christian service. It is a noble thing to be a real clerk, who, with painstaking care and accuracy, faithfully renders this Christian service.

In The Christian Annual may be found lists of ministers, ordained and licentiate; the records of the churches, as to membership and confessions; local expenses and benevolences; the work of the boards, commissions, bureaus, secretaries, and departments, and their records are given so that all who will may understand them.

The records in each year's Annual are far more useful and vital than many persons realize.

The reader may thus realize how anxious the Convention is that the records be complete, accurate, and reliable. This is the reason that the Convention itself makes its secretary the Editor, and prepares, with great care and expense, uniform blanks, with detailed instructions, without cost to the churches, ministers, and conferences. The uniform reports are essential, and all churches and conferences should, without exception, use them. None of the information is unimportant.

It is our steady purpose to make The Annual noted for its accuracy, but we have no way of reading illegible writing, or of harmonizing inaccurate figures. All this emphasizes the care that churches, organizations, and conferences should use in choosing clerks, treasurers, registrars, and statisticians.

We hope this issue of The Christian Annual will be of an unusually large service in the work of the Kingdom.

Summary of the Actions of the General Board at Its Annual Session, October 16-19, 1928

The Secretary reported the following actions taken by the Executive Committee, by correspondence, during the year:

a—Authorizing the assignment of a five hundred dollar Liberty Loan Bond by the Convention Treasurer, in the name of the Convention.

b—Accepting the resignation of Dr. W. P. Minton as a member of the Bureau of Ministerial Supply, and the election of the Convention Secretary to fill the vacancy.

c—Memorializing the Southern Christian Convention to merge The Christian Sun with The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

d—Accepting the resignation of Mr. Lee Harvey, as a member of the Foreign Mission Department of the Mission Board, and the election of Mr. Roy Rensberger, of Indiana, to fill the vacancy.

e—Allowing the Board of Publications to conduct a financial campaign during July and August, by mail, and by personal interviews, in the interest of the deficit on The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

f—Calling the General Board in session, October 16th, on the opening evening of the Board meetings.

The Board carefully considered the reports of the Officers, Boards, Bureaus, Commissions, and Committees.

The Commission on Christian Unity reported through its chairman, President F. G. Coffin. The report was thoroughly discussed and on motion was adopted by unanimous vote. See page 56.

PRESIDENT COFFIN'S REPORT

A part of the activities of the president of the Convention are indicated in the annual report of the Commission on Christian Unity, which work he has directed. He attended twenty-nine conferences and official meetings in our own denomination and gave thirty-six addresses; attended eighteen interdenominational or other-denominational meetings at which he gave twenty-four addresses; has delivered sixty-five sermons in thirty churches, fifteen being in churches of other denominations; traveled 38,000 miles, though a part of this has not been in the interest of the Convention; served three months as supply pastor of First Church, Dayton, Ohio, and has been pastor one month of the First Church, Columbus, Ohio; assisted for a time with The Herald of Gospel Liberty during Editor Kerr's illness, and wrote articles for other papers, year books, and some pamphlets for our own work.

SECRETARY DENISON'S REPORT

Secretary Denison reported carrying on the work of the office of Convention Secretary, Secretary of Finance, Secretary of Stewardship and Promotion, and for the last part of the year served as Secretary of the Bureau of Ministerial Supply; traveling 19,380 miles in interest of our work, speaking 248 times in fifty-one different churches, in four Regional Conventions, and in sixteen different conferences; attending six conference sessions, and nine interdenominational meetings; conducting financial campaigns for churches, schools of stewardship, institutes, co-operating with conference boards, young people's congresses, women's board rallies, summer schools, editing The Christian Annual, writing many articles, issuing literature. He edited the 1928 Christian Annual at a cost of $245.80 less than that of the 1927 issue. He urged that The Annual be taken in larger numbers by the conferences as it is a necessity for all church and conference workers.

AUDITORS' REPORT

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 9, 1928.

To The General Convention of the Christian Church:

We have this day completed the audit of the books, as kept by your Treasurer, J. G. Myers, and submit the following report:

All receipts and disbursements have been carefully checked and books compared with the books of your secretary. Properly endorsed checks for all payments made were found. We also checked all notes, securities, Certificates of Deposit, Bank Pass Book, and other legal papers held by your Treasurer representing your Permanent Funds, and submit herewith a listing of same:

PERMANENT FUND INVESTMENTS

Board of Franklinton College (note)	$ 5,000.00
Rev. and Mrs. McD. Howsare (note)	1,700.00
Huntington First Christian Church (note)	5,500.00
Anna F. Smith (note)	2,200.00
Piqua First Christian Church (note)	3,000.00
Christian Publishing Association (note)	2,500.00
Palmer Christian College (note) (Bond for $5,000 held as collateral security)	4,000.00

Corwith Fund Certificates of Deposit, as follows:

Pleasant Hill Bank	$16,492.30
--------------------------	-------------

Troy Building & Loan	21,367.12
Piqua Building & Loan	$10,499.43
	<hr/>
Loaned to W. H. Denison, Secretary, for	$48,358.85
Current Funds	$ 2,300.00
Cash in Pleasant Hill Banking Co.	1,796.22
	$76,355.07

Since no provision was made to provide for any deficit that might occur during the year in your Current Funds, we find that your Treasurer has drawn on your Permanent Funds to the amount shown above. It would seem that some provision should be made to take care of this item in the future in order that your Permanent Funds may be properly maintained and the offices of your Treasurer and Secretary be protected from any financial embarrassment that might arise. We find no note or other legal paper in the hand of your Treasurer, other than the cancelled checks for the amounts temporarily borrowed from your Permanent Funds to carry the expense of your Secretary through that period of the year when receipts are lightest. It would seem to us that such should be provided.

We find no Current Funds in the hands of your Treasurer as of September 30, 1928.

We find nothing that would in any way reflect upon the honesty or character of your Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

S. O. ALBAUGH,

A. F. CHASE,

Auditors.

The resignation of Rev. Stanley C. Harrell, of North Carolina, from the Board of Evangelism and Life Service was accepted and Rev. O. S. Thomas, D. D., of Ohio, was elected to fill the vacancy.

The resignation of Mr. M. Orban, Jr., of California, from the Board of Christian Education was accepted and Miss Helen R. Stearns, of Ohio, was elected to fill the vacancy.

The Board declined to accept the resignation of Rev. W. P. Fletcher, D. D., from the Mission Board.

Letters were read from Dr. Alva M. Kerr and Mr. M. Orban, Jr.

Visitors were present at various sessions of the Board.

The Board of Ministerial Relief reported and asked to be discharged. Its request was granted.

The Committee on Merger of Herald reported and after several amendments was adopted as amended. See page 63.

The Committee on Handbook for 1928 reported and the following persons were appointed as Committee on Handbook for 1929: Warren H. Denison, W. P. Minton, A. W. Sparks, Hermon Eldredge, McD. Howsare, T. B. Rada-baugh.

The same committee was appointed to advise with the Editor of The Christian Annual as to its contents and price.

The Committee on Merger of the General Convention and The Christian Publishing Association reported that it seemed unwise to make any legal change at the present time.

The Committee on Membership and Admission of Conferences in the General Convention, Dr. J. F. Burnett, Chairman, reported and the report was adopted.

The Board adopted the following report of the Resolutions Committee:

The Board is deeply conscious of the loss it has this year sustained in the enforced absence from its meetings of Dr. Alva Martin Kerr, Editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty. Much as we deplore the loss of his counsel, wise and inspiring as it ever was, we regret much more the cause that compels him to remain secluded in his home at a time when we all know his utter anxiety to be present and to give what assistance he might in the solution of the grave problems bearing on our publishing interests and in all matters of concern to the church.

We, there, resolve that this Board express, through the Secretary of the General Convention, its sympathetic regret at the unfortunate and unforeseen turn in Dr. Kerr's physical condition, which has made the last few days so unfortunately trying to him, who has suffered so much and so heroically while carrying on the work for his beloved church.

Furthermore, we desire Dr. and Mrs. Kerr to know that prayers for his complete restoration have been, are, and will continue to be made by a host of friends in the church who love him for what he is, and for what he has done.

Resolved, That we express to the Dayton Association of Christian Churches the deep appreciation of the General Board for the inspiring gathering in the Dayton Y. M. C. A. Banquet Hall on the evening of October 17, and that we trust such a gathering of the Brotherhood may be arranged from time to time on the occasion of the meeting of the Boards in Dayton.

Resolved, further, that we express our deep regret at the enforced absence from our sessions this year of Brother M. Orban, Jr., the more especially because his absence is caused by impaired health. However, we indulge the hope, and express the prayer, that the health of our dear brother and co-worker may soon be such that he can again take his accustomed place in his own affairs and with us in the service of the church to which he has, by the providence of God, made such a large contribution. We are profoundly grateful for his faithful attendance at former Board sessions, and for his invaluable aid in wise counsel and good fellowship, and express our regret that, owing to impaired health, he feels it necessary to resign from our Board, which resignation we accept with reluctance.

Resolved, that we heartily endorse the outlawing of war, as provided in the Kellogg Treaty, known as the Pact of Paris, and authorize the President and Secretary of the General Convention to memorialize the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate, urging its ratification.

We, the members of the Board of The General Convention of the Christian Church, reaffirm our faith in Prohibition and most emphatically reassert our confidence in the wisdom of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act, and believe that the same should be kept inviolate on our statute books. We recognize the fact that it was primarily through the churches, preaching and efforts of the churches, that the movement was initiated, and carried to a successful conclusion, which resulted in the enactment of our present Prohibition laws. We, therefore, view with alarm any movement on the part of any person, group of persons, political or other parties, or any effort to prevent the enforcement of our prohibition laws, and as a Board we pledge ourselves to do all we can to prevent the repeal, and for the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act., and their subsidiary enactments, and further pledge ourselves that we will not aid, knowingly, the candidacy of any person, State or National, whose tacit or avowed purpose is to prevent the enforcement of any or all prohibition laws.

The Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion reported through its secretary, Warren H. Denison, and the following recommendations were adopted: See page 59.

The following Boards reported and their reports were adopted as follows:

REPORTS

Department of Foreign Missions

REV. WILSON P. MINTON, D. D., Dayton, Ohio, Executive Secretary

During the year the Woodworths returned to Japan from their regular furlough and he resumed work in Tokyo, teaching in the schools, conducting services for various pastors, and as head of the Department of Greek at the Seminary.

We record with deep sorrow the passing of Mrs. Susie Gullett Fry at Utsunomiya, Japan, on February 27, 1928, after more than thirty-three years of missionary service. She was buried at Utsunomiya. Tribute to her memory was published in The Herald, but in this annual report we bear record to her earnest and consecrated and sacrificial service. She built with her own money the Sendai church and gave it to the Mission. She also built the Girls' School building, and the Utsunomiya church, selling the latter to the Board recently at a very reasonable price.

Dr. Fry and Miss Crew came home in the summer for regular furlough, part of which is being spent in deputation work and part will be spent in school with the hope that both may be returned at the regular time in the late summer of 1929. The Garmans and McKnights continued their regular work at Tokyo and Sendai, respectively, and Miss Stacy spent the year at Ishinomaki, moving in the summer to Utsunomiya to carry the work of Dr. Fry.

We have fifteen pastors in Japan, and one minister in charge of the Orphanage, twelve kindergarten teachers, in eight kindergartens, three Bible Women, three Seminary students, two Bible Training students, and one kindergarten training student.

Three young men have been ordained this year following their first year or two of active service after graduation.

The Oji Day Nursery which we have conducted so successfully since the earthquake of 1923, has been turned over entirely to the Oji Social Service Settlement. Another opportunity to do this kind of work had to be rejected because of lack of funds.

We had eighty-six baptisms in the Japan field this year and one hundred sixteen last year. Our resident membership has been cut to 586 from 738 and our total membership from 1972 to 1966. New pastors revising rolls accounts for the decrease. Enrolled enquirers have increased from 173 to 214. Sunday-school enrollment decreased from 2,047 to 1,815. Amount paid for pastoral support by Japanese church, gained from $1,450.25 to $1,482, and total Japanese giving from $3,645.47 to $4,026.18.

The Barretts returned to Porto Rico in July, 1928, after a year of furlough, visiting many of our churches and conferences.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton had to retire from the work in Porto Rico this year because of the continued ill-health of Mr. Morton.

Miss Victoria Adams has successfully completed her first year of service in Porto Rico and is doing good work, particularly among the young people. She assisted in three Daily Vacation Bible schools the past summer and is already teaching her Bible Class in Spanish.

One pastor was ordained in Porto Rico during the year and two young men were brought into full time service. We now have five pastors, one Bible Woman, and one kindergarten teacher.

A church was organized at Descalabrado in May of this year.

The terrific hurricane that swept Porto Rico September 13, left fearful destruction throughout the island. Several hundred people lost their lives, 700,000 were left homeless and hungry, and millions of dollars of damage was done. Mission Boards suffered heavily, but our own mission had the smallest loss of any. Mr. Barrett estimates the losses on our properties at $5,000. It may go beyond that figure. Our Missionary Societies are doing fine work in sending boxes of clothing to these destitute people. Thirty families belonging to our churches lost everything they had. Pestilence is following the storm and much help is necessary. The fund to restore our property and help our own destitute people will have to come as a special gift above our regular budget for this year or our entire Foreign Mission work will be seriously affected in its regular channels, as the property must either be repaired now or be more seriously damaged. The Foreign Department is expecting to raise this fund by calling for personal gifts without a general appeal to the churches for offerings except as a last resort, and asks the approval of this Board to proceed in this way.

We have seven main stations as against six last year, a church membership of 440 as against 459 last year, a C. E. enrollment of 189 which is twenty-two less than last year, and a S. S. enrollment of 1,183 which is forty-nine higher than last year. The Porto Rico church raised $1,956.60 this year as against $1,928.78 the year before.

We followed the same lines of Missionary Educational work during the year, issuing one large leaflet covering briefly all the work and a number of smaller ones describing the actual work and workers on the field. A total of 104,500 copies of leaflets were issued and much of this material was used in Church Schools of Missions, a Six Weeks program for the Sunday-school during the Foreign Mission Period in February and March and various other ways. A larger number of churches used the literature in some way, but a smaller number of offerings were received during the year. The interest of our young people in Foreign Mission work has substantially increased and we have had the finest co-operation from the Department of Christian Education in this direction.

Following is a comparison of receipts for last year and this:

	1927	1928
General Fund	$39,714.27	$45,499.50
Designated Gifts	11,619.50	6,438.44
Forward Movement	609.59	187.50
Total	$51,943.36	$52,125.44

While this shows a gain of $182.08 this year it has not been at all sufficient to decrease materially our deficit which now stands at $10,561.72. Up to last May the falling off in receipts was such that a special meeting of the Board had to be called and most drastic cuts made in the budget amounting to $5,000 in Japan and $3,000 in Porto Rico. The announcement of the cut spurred some extra giving and since May we have also received over $5,000 in two unexpected gifts of money not actually raised during the year. But even with these unexpected gifts we could not have financed the work at all without the cut being made.

The illness of the Secretary during the latter part of the summer prevented his attending any of the fall conferences. He attended one conference in the spring, three summer schools, the Central Convention, the Student Volunteer Movement, the Committee on Co-operation in Latin America, the Foreign Missions Conference, the Missionary Education Movement, the Ohio Pastors' Conference, the Southern Christian Convention, besides a number of local churches through the year. He also attended the meeting with the Congregational Secretaries at Washington in the interest of union. The department has sought to get into closer touch with the American Board of Commissioners of the Congregational Church.

The Foreign Mission Department has taken the following action concerning the work of the coming year:

We endorsed the resolution passed by our Japan mission as presented by the Fellowship of Reconciliation calling upon the churches to uphold the missionaries in their work by expressing their disapproval of all forms of militarism including the withholding of funds or other sanctions to denominational schools or colleges offering courses in military training.

The Garman's are to come home next year for their regular furlough and Dr. Fry and Miss Crew are to be returned to Japan following their year of furlough.

A resolution of appreciation was voted Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Fletcher for their service in connection with the Japan Mission, though they are working independent of the same.

One of our more experienced younger pastors, Rev. K. Kitano, Jr., is coming to America this month to enter Auburn Theological Seminary for a two-year course and we hope to have him at our next General Convention as fraternal delegate from the Japan Christian Church.

We have endorsed a proposal made by the Japan Christian Council to the Jerusalem meeting of the International Missionary Council calling for a union of the Theological Seminaries in Japan and pledging our support of our own mission in co-operating with others in this undertaking.

The Foreign Mission Department has been compelled, because of lack of funds, to refrain from co-operating in the plan for a Latin-American Conference in Havana, in the spring of 1929, and also in a great Christian Literature program for all Latin America. All other co-operative work has been seriously curtailed.

We hope to be able to secure the $5,000 needed for Porto Rico reconstruction work by personal contributions without resorting to an appeal to the churches as above stated.

Miss Adams is to continue her work in Ponce where she has been giving unusually fine service to the young people.

The Porto Rico church and mission have heartily endorsed the proposed union between our mission and that of the Congregationalists on the island and have been proceeding with steps toward this as soon as possible. It is hoped that the United Brethren mission will also enter this union now and that the other missions on the island will soon follow. This Board has passed resolutions urging both the Porto Rico and Japan Missions to move forward as rapidly as they can with these plans.

The Foreign Mission Secretary had an urgent invitation from the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions of the Congregational Church to attend their annual session meeting at Bridgeport, Conn., and a similar invitation that a representative of the Woman's Board be present. Because of our own Board meetings we could not accept, but the Foreign Board sent the following telegram: "American Board of Commissioners of the Congregational Church, c/o Rev. C. H. Patton, D. D., Bridgeport, Conn.: The Foreign Mission Department of the Mission Board of the Christian Church in annual session sends greetings to the American Board of Commissioners of the Congregational Church. May you have an inspiring meeting and may we soon be united in this work of Kingdom extension to the glory of God." Signed W. P. Fletcher, President, W. P. Minton, Secretary.

The following was received in reply: "W. P. Fletcher, Mission Board of the Christian Church, Dayton, Ohio. The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions in annual session at Bridgeport, Conn., received with heartfelt appreciation your greetings and unite with you in the earnest hope for speedy union in our common task." Signed, R. H. Potter, President, O. L. Maurer, Sec.

In this connection it should be said that Dr. M. J. W. White who has been a candidate for appointment for medical service under our board is now considering appointment by the American Board and will decide this week between that and a call from the Baptist Board for work in south China.

An expression of appreciation was given to our young people for their effective co-operation in our Foreign work.

The following budget was approved:

Porto Rico—

Regular and Special Work	$ 9,177.00
Union Work	1,323.00
Total Porto Rico Budget		$10,500.00

Japan—

Regular work (Co-operative Bd.)	$ 8,000.00
Regular work (Japan Missions)	15,000.00
Total Regular work	$23,000.00
Specials	4,600.00

Total Japan Budget		$27,600.00
Miscellaneous Budget		9,900.00
Deficit		10,561.72

Total 1929 Budget		$58,561.72
-------------------------	--	-------------

This is just $30,000 less than the estimates made by our two missions and means permanent injury to the work. It is hoped that the Porto Rico Hurricane Fund can be raised in full so as to release every dollar of this greatly reduced budget for the regular work and if possible cut down the deficit.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. MINTON.

Note: The action of the General Mission Board in voting that each Department should pay five percent of their income from recurring items in 1927-28 for The Herald deficit means that the Foreign Mission Department must pay $2,561.20 this year to The Herald fund based on total receipts from recurring items of $51,224.14. Since we had provided for $1,250 in our regular budget for The Herald deficit it becomes necessary to add the balance of the $2,561.20, or $1,311.20 to the budget above mentioned which makes the total amount of the Foreign Mission Budget for 1929, $59,872.92.

Officers elected for the ensuing year are, President, Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D.; Secretary, Rev. W. P. Minton, D. D.; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Alice V. Morrill.

W. P. MINTON, Secretary.

Department of Home Missions and Church Extension

REV. A. W. SPARKS, A. M., Dayton, Ohio., Executive Secretary

October 1, 1927—September 30, 1928

In coming to the close of this second year of the quadrennium we find ourselves far behind our ideals. There have been many factors which have entered into this situation which cannot be enumerated here. The general financial condition has not been good throughout the year and this has necessarily affected our offerings.

Our total receipts this year were $30,066.68 as compared with $33,790.96 last year. With our budget reduced as it was, we found it necessary to increase our indebtedness or suffer great loss in our work. We, therefore, closed the year with an indebtedness of $18,120.32, which is the largest indebtedness we have had at the beginning of the year.

We have made careful readjustments in our program for the coming year and have reduced our appropriations wherever possible. In some instances the work has come to self-support. Owing to the financial stress of the past year, the Board felt it absolutely necessary to close out the New American Mission Work at Haverhill, Mass., this coming year. The support of the church will stop Dec. 30, 1928, but the work of the Mission will be continued until Sept. 1, 1929. It is regrettable that this action was necessary. Only one condition can remedy the situation and that is greatly increased offerings to Home Missions during the coming year. Our program adopted for next year is one of the most helpful of our history and every effort should be put forth to carry it to success.

Our program of service this year has been carried on in a very helpful way and we have much to be thankful for as a result of the year's work.

CONSERVATION

In our conservation work we have endeavored to encourage every church which has a real field for service to arrange its program to meet the needs of the community. We have advised churches in overchurched communities to consolidate and have refused to put Home Mission money into competitive enterprises, either established or new.

There are some churches located in communities where a church is needed which require constant care and help lest they become discouraged and close their doors, leaving the community without any constructive religious leadership. There are other churches in cities which, because of location or other reasons, become discouraged and need help. We have tried to serve these communities with a view of the larger Kingdom interests in the community as well as our own denominational interests.

In this phase of our work our field men have helped churches to put on their financial drives, have put them in touch with pastors, have held revival meetings, institutes, etc., and have kept up the general morale of both local churches and conferences. This has been of great value to our general work. The most outstanding piece of field work this year has been that of Rev. Jesse M. Kauffman, the intrepid campaigner for righteousness in the Western Christian Convention. Traveling many thousands of miles in his car or by train he has touched effectively every part of that great field. Space will not permit a detailed report of the work of these splendid men, but work like that of Rev. Kauffman will write a large chapter in the history of the Western Christian Convention.

Under the leadership of Rev. A. R. Webb, the Clearville Church of the Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania Conference has purchased and occupied a new plant and the work is taking on new life. The Mt. Union Church of the same conference is putting an addition to their plant and the Fairview Church has erected and equipped a splendid parsonage.

Our field men have worked in the neglected or otherwise needy areas and their service has been very helpful.

RESUSCITATION

In this type of work we endeavor to strengthen the churches which have the best opportunities for Kingdom service and enable them through proper leadership to meet the needs of their communities. We have a small group of churches which we have helped to secure efficient leadership and much good has been accomplished in this line of service. Churches have been brought to self-support as rapidly as possible so that the help could be passed on to others in need of such help. There are some churches where peculiar conditions have kept them on the Board for a longer period. These are constantly encouraged to assume a larger part of their own support.

This part of our work has not attracted much attention, as it deals with established churches. It has, however, saved many churches from closing and has helped others to become strong, prosperous churches. Our number has been constantly reducing because of our churches assuming self-support.

CHURCH EXTENSION

In the field of Church Extension we have made some progress this year. Finances have been so tight that many local communities have put off their building for the time being. The church at Ferguson, Iowa, is moving its building two blocks west and is putting on a number of extra classrooms and a large basement. It is now under roof and they hope to have it finished for dedication early in January.

The First Christian Church in Dayton, Ohio, has secured Rev. John G. Truitt as pastor and they plan moving their church into the Dayton View section just as soon as possible. They are planning to sell their present plant and build a new building in Dayton View.

Walnut Hills, Dayton, Ohio, has secured Rev. W. T. Scott as pastor and their work is taking on new life.

The church on Malden Road, Syracuse, New York, is under roof and services are now being held in the commodious basement. Dr. Dales is pushing this work along with his field work.

The Church Extension Work is shaping itself for progress during the coming year. A much larger fund should be secured for this type of work, as it is a very needy and profitable type of work. During the past year not much effort was given to raise church extension funds. Our general finances were in such precarious condition throughout the year that it did not seem wise to push church extension solicitation strongly, and since any campaign for church extension funds was not approved by the Finance Committee, little solicitation was carried on this year.

CHRISTIANIZATION

This type of work includes our special work among the various groups with which we are working. Upon visiting each of these fields this year I found the work in each moving forward hopefully.

The work among the New Americans has continued to progress, gradually widening its contacts with the various groups in the community. Some repairs have been completed and the work is opening up this fall in a very hopeful way. The Daily Vacation Bible School this summer was the largest in the city and did fine work. A Boy Scout troupe has been organized under the leadership of Stanley Haines and much interest is being created in this work. Miss Marguerite Youmans and Miss Rose Kochakian are carrying forward the work here in a fine way.

The work at Franklinton Christian College for the Negroes has progressed nicely this year. The past year was a good one in every way and the new year starts off with the largest enrollment in their history. There is a larger percent in the High School courses this year than last, which shows a gradual increase in the standards of the public schools from which the students come. There are fifteen of the present group of students who are studying for the ministry and with the new department of Christian Education opened this year a larger number should be recruited.

The dormitory remains unfinished but enclosed so that it is not deteriorating. This should be completed just as soon as possible. Two homes for professors have been constructed this year.

The Christmas offering this year amounted to approximately $1,973.85 and we have collected and passed on to Dr. Harper, the President of the Board of Control, $6,724.57. The Woman's Mission Board has helped greatly in securing this amount, having turned over to us for this purpose $4,383.90.

Franklinton is performing a great mission and needs our prayers and enlarged support.

In our Indian work we have had a very good year. Much progress is noted in the lives of the Indian boys and girls. Miss Elizabeth Howsare, our Religious Work Director at the Theodore Roosevelt Indian School at Ft. Apache, Arizona, completed her fifth year in August and is now on leave of absence for this year. Miss Bessie Kniffen, a graduate of Defiance College, and a teacher and preacher of experience, has been engaged for this work and is now on the field, organizing her work for the school year. This is one of the most needy types of work we are doing and should be one of the most profitable for Kingdom building. Here are many boys and girls in the formative period of their lives who need a chance to become acquainted with their Lord and his gospel.

Our work among the Logging Men in Western Washington has progressed nicely throughout the year and much good work has been done. The territory there is larger and more needy than many of us think it is. After going over the field it seemed that we were only touching the borders of our real field. Our financial condition has been such that we could not see our way clear to send a pastor and wife to that field, which is very much needed. We hope that it soon will be possible for us to answer their plea by sending additional workers to them. At present Rev. W. R. Caldwell is preaching almost three-quarter time in the Montesano, Wash., Christian Church, and on the remaining time preaches once a month in three different schoolhouses, many miles apart. This territory has no other church service with the exception of a Presbyterian logging preacher who comes through this section occasionally in his rounds of the camps of a great section of country. He preaches in the Brooklyn schoolhouse occasionally. With the change of the headquarters camp of the Saginaw Lumber Company to near the Brooklyn school, a larger need has developed. About two hundred pupils are enrolled now in the Brooklyn, Wash., schools with only one preaching service a month, and that at night, it leaves them with scarcely no chance for constructive training. This field calls "Come over into Washington and help us". It was my privilege to visit each of these preaching points and some of the people of each and to sense somewhat of the need of this field. Rev. Caldwell and Miss Ruse are doing their share. We must not fail them.

We have co-operated with the Home Missions Council and the Missionary Education Movement throughout the year. Through this channel we help to reach the great migrant group of people who shift from one place to another with the seasonable crops. Many workers are maintained among these people because their shifting life does not permit their children to go to church usually.

Through the Missionary Education Movement we assist in the selection of books and other material for our mission study in the churches.

Viewing this year as a whole we have much to be thankful for in the good work accomplished. While we regret to close the year with a larger deficit, yet we have maintained our whole program of service and did much promotional work which should mean a great deal for the future of our work. When we think of the thousands of boys and girls we have ministered to in the name of the Lord and of the churches inspired and assisted and the many neglected people reached by the gospel message, we should rejoice and take courage.

Board of Christian Education

W. A. HARPER, Elon College, N. C., Executive Secretary

October, 1928

I. EDITORS AND SECRETARIES

The Board of Christian Education gratefully records a year of progress.

Our editors and secretaries have been unsurpassed in their devotion to the cause and some of them have refused to take a vacation for fear it would slow up the work momentarily.

Our Board is planning to return Mrs. Bullock to full time work for the coming year.

Miss Eldredge desires to return to Boston University at the beginning of the winter semester to complete her M. A. degree. The Board is arranging for her to continue the Young People's Work while securing the degree.

Our Board reports that Miss Ruth Elliott, Springfield, Ohio, has been engaged as Office Secretary.

Dr. S. Q. Helfenstein has carried on his work with good success as in former years. The popularity of the quarterly which he edits continues unabated. He will also continue to furnish lesson topics and Scripture with daily readings for the review Sundays in each quarter.

The Executive Secretary has conducted the Department's general correspondence and has acted as Associate Editor of the Magazine Number of The Herald of Gospel Liberty and made suggestions from time to time to the editors. Our editors certainly deserve praise for their work.

II. FINANCES

Last year we reported receipts of $8,315.55 from the church. This year we report receipts of $8,785.19, a gain of $479.69. This indicates that the people appreciate our work more as they understand it better. The publicity matter which our Board issued during its offering period this year has been of a very high grade and is resulting at this time even in increased gifts. We have adopted the following budget for 1928-1929:

BUDGET

Estimated Receipts:

Balance October 1, 1928	$ 1,253.96
Estimated Offering	10,546.04
Estimated Personal Gifts	1,200.00
	$13,000.00

Estimated Expenditures:

Salary, Hermon Eldredge, (one half)	$ 1,800.00
Expenses, Hermon Eldredge, (one half)	300.00
Salary, Lucy M. Eldredge	1,400.00
Expenses, Lucy M. Eldredge	400.00
Salary, Mrs. F. E. Bullock	550.00
Expenses, Mrs. F. E. Bullock	200.00
Office Stenographer	1,000.00
Young People's Worker	100.00
Young People's Conference	100.00
Adult Education	50.00
Christian Education Library	50.00
General Expense	2,500.00
General Secretary's Expense	800.00
Stories	200.00
Interdenominational Co-operation	550.00
Defiance College	1,500.00
Palmer College	1,000.00
Union Christian College	500.00
	$13,000.00

The support which we are able to give our colleges is entirely inadequate. We recommend that they be permitted to approach individuals to meet their current expense accounts and to add to their permanent funds. We also recommend that Defiance and Palmer Colleges be allowed to promote College Day in their respective territories on the first Sunday of November, beginning in 1929. (The third Sunday in October was chosen.)

If you wish to kill the Christian Church, exterminate its Colleges.

III. COLLEGES

The suit has been won by the Union Christian College against those who were endeavoring to secure the nullification of its charter. A motion for a new trial has been made, but it is likely a gesture only. Dr. E. A. Watkins has been chosen as resident president of the college and entered actively upon his duties October 1. It is the plan of its Board of Trustees for this college to be opened in 1929 as a Bible Training School. The plan in intention is to offer a two-year course for those who have not gone to college or seminary and are not able to do so, but who will be able to profit greatly from such a course.

In September of this year the Starkey Christian Training School was opened at Lakemont, New York. This institution is fostered by the Christian Churches of the Metropolitan Convention. Dr. J. N. Dales is the Dean, with Dr. Martyn Summerbell, Dr. G. A. Conibear, Rev. D. D. Bouman, and Mrs. Margaret McCalman as faculty members. The departments of instruction include Bible, church history, systematic theology, and languages. The school has assets of $4,475.00. There is an indebtedness of $1,000 in the form of a mortgage at two percent interest. Six students have enrolled so far. The school has not applied to the Board of Christian Education for assistance.

The Kirton Hall property has been sold and the funds are being used to aid students of our church in McMaster University. We understand the property was sold for $5,000.00.

The facts with reference to our other schools are set forth in the statistical table herewith appended:

IV. STATISTICS

Statistics with reference to our work, including particularly the Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor, are printed among the church reports.

V. SUMMER SCHOOLS

Summer Schools were conducted in the past summer at Palmer College, Union Christian College, Defiance College (one for young people and one for pastors), at Lakemont, at Craigville, at Elon College, and at Bethlehem College. A Winter School was conducted at Franklinton. The work in all of these was of a high order and an increased number of credits were earned. Our Board, however, feels the need of a constructive curriculum for these schools thus guaranteeing the progressive development of the course from year to year. We have instructed the Director of Summer Schools working with the Summer School Board Committee to undertake to construct such a policy and curriculum. There is great hope for our church in our summer schools.

A new step in our work was the Convention held at Elon College in January for the pastors of the Southern Christian Convention. We find much to commend in this plan, in that it brings the ministers of a college constituency in direct contact with the institution when it is a going concern and are the better able to interpret its ideals to their people.

VI. LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Our work in Leadership Training continues to go forward under the directorship of Mr. Hermon Eldredge. We are anxious that our colleges should co-operate with our department of leadership training, reporting their work in Bible and Religious Education comparable to the units of the Standard Leadership Training Course for credit with this department.

Such courses are entitled not only to credit in our denomination, but to interdenominational and international credit as well. We do not think that our colleges could make a greater contribution to our churches in the way of competent leadership in their work than through such co-operation.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

Last year we began a system of Directors for the various interests which our Board undertakes to conserve. The reports submitted by these Directors were of a very high order and will be printed in The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Our Board reaffirms its adherence to a curriculum of Religious Education based on experience and instructed its editors as heretofore and as rapidly as possible to edit their curriculum materials in terms of life situations and the problems of the Christian life regnant in our modern times.

The Board also reaffirms its adherence to an integrated program of organization, finance, and instruction in stewardship, missions, evangelism, and other phases of a well-rounded Christian life and experience.

We learn with pleasure that Franklinton College for the current year has added to its staff a Professor of Bible and Religious Education. Every one of our schools now offers instruction under a regular department in these vital branches.

Our Board voted to continue Summer Schools in strategic centers and to continue the Winter School for Franklinton.

The third Sunday in January is designated as "Day of Prayer for Our Colleges".

Our offering has been set for Rally Day, the First Sunday of October, 1929.

We respectfully call the attention of our General Board to the unusually large assessment made against this Department for the deficit of the Christian Annual, and request an adjustment for this item.

Our Board has recommended that the suggestion be sent to the pastors and Sunday-school superintendents that at least one offering a month from our Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor societies be given to the church budget, this amount to go through the regular church treasury to the General Secretary of the Convention and to be credited to that church on its budget, from the Sunday-school or Christian Endeavor society giving it. We, however, recommend as heretofore, a unified budget as the ideal financial plan for our churches.

The Board is informed that Bethlehem College and Piedmont College at Demorest, Georgia, a Congregational institution, are co-operating educationally, though Bethlehem's property is not involved. Bethlehem has changed its name to Piedmont Junior College, but the articles of its corporation remain unchanged in the name of Bethlehem College.

We are informed that the Atlanta Theological Seminary, the Congregational Seminary of the South, plans to affiliate with Elon College and to move to its campus in September, 1929.

Our Board went on record as favoring the continuation of The Herald of Gospel Liberty with the Magazine Number as outlined in the merger plan at your 1928 session.

The Central Illinois Christian Conference memorialized our Board "to prescribe a course of study that ministers without theological training may pursue by the correspondence school plan". Since the Bible Training School of Union Christian College plans to offer such a course, we have referred this memorial to that institution.

We have instructed President Caris to make a study of college trends and to submit to our Board at its next session an educational policy for our denomination.

Mr. M. Orban, Jr., has resigned from our Board. We recommend his resignation be accepted.

Our Board is pleased to note the promotion that has come to one of its members in the selection of Dr. H. Shelton Smith as Professor of Religious Education in Teachers College, Columbia University. Dr. Smith has rendered a service which has won nation-wide attention as Director of Leadership Training in the International Council of Religious Education.

VIII. NOMINATIONS

Our Board nominates the following persons for its official positions and recommends their election by the General Board:

Executive Committee: W. A. Harper, W. G. Sargent, R. C. Helfenstein.
 Director of Children's Work: Mrs. F. E. Bullock.
 Director of Young People's Division: Miss Lucy M. Eldredge.

MISSION BOARD

Mr. Roy Rensberger was sworn in as a member of the Board.

The Treasurer's and Auditors' reports were approved.

The following officers were elected: President, J. O. Atkinson; Secretary, Mrs. Athella M. Howsare; Treasurer, A. W. Sparks.

The following resolutions and honorariums were voted: Home Mission Secretary and Board Treasurer, $3,000; Foreign Mission Secretary and Associate Editor, $3,000; Recording Secretary Honorarium, $10.

Dr. Fletcher offered his resignation as a member of the Board, and it was referred to the General Board.

Miss Angie Crew, Rev. E. C. Fry, D. D., Miss Edna Ruse, and Miss Elizabeth Howsare, missionaries, were present with the Board, and the following resolution was adopted: We would in this formal way acknowledge with deep appreciation their presence and counsel, and pledge our most sympathetic and prayerful co-operation, and hope they may be returned to their sacrificial tasks refreshed and inspired.

The Board adopted the following resolutions: That we acknowledge the deep devotion and sacrifice of our Mission Secretaries in their trying work, and that we assure them of our sympathetic and prayerful support and call upon our brotherhood to assist them in every way possible.

That we express to Miss Angie Crew our heartfelt sympathy in the death of her brother, and pray that the comfort of Him Who said, "I am the resurrection and the life" may be hers in this hour of sorrow.

Whereas, during the past year, Rev. Emily K. Bishop, in the fulness of years, has entered the Father's home, be is resolved that this Board hold in loving memory her beautiful life and unselfish service, and that we earnestly strive to carry on the work of the Kingdom in the spirit in which she served so many years.

Whereas, it has seemed wise to our Heavenly Father to call unto Himself Mrs. Susie V. Fry, for thirty-four years a missionary in Japan, be it resolved that this Board express its deep appreciation of her years of sacrificial service for the Master, and pray that we may exemplify the same unselfish devotion which ever characterized her work.

Resolved, that whereas, during the year, our Mission cause has lost one of its most loyal supporters in the home-going of Mrs. J. F. Burnett, member of the Home Mission Department of this Board 1914-1918, that this Board record its keen appreciation of her invaluable service in the Kingdom work and call upon our workers everywhere to cherish her memory and to carry on the work in the same loyal manner in which she always served.

Board of Evangelism and Life Service

REV. MCD. HOWSARE, D. D., Dayton, Ohio, Executive Secretary

With undiminished emphasis upon the fundamental need among our people of propagating the gospel by means of the evangelistic appeal, the members of the Board of Evangelism and Life Service purpose to continue to carry through, in the best way possible, the intentions of the people of the Christian Church, as expressed in the action of their representatives assembled in Convention at Burlington, N. C., and at Urbana, Ill.

We offer the following line of action for the coming year:

1. The Board of Evangelism and Life Service desires to emphasize the need of our churches and pastors placing greater stress upon the observance of the 1900th anniversary of our Lord's earthly ministry, culminating in 1930. It is hoped that our special crusades, described in our publications, will serve useful purposes.

2. It is in the plan of the Board to meet a need observed in some quarters by issuing an outline course of study of Evangelism, to be used by young people's groups; especially do we wish to stress this need in connection with the Christian Endeavor Evangelistic Crusade.

3. We urge our churches and pastors to endorse and carry out, as far as possible, the suggestions offered by the Commission on Evangelism of the Churches of Christ in America, which follow:

"While we are of the conviction that life and spirit are of more significance than methods and machinery, and while we realize that the spirit makes for itself channels of operation, nevertheless we wish to avail ourselves of such modiperandi as have been notably blessed of God and have produced gratifying results.

"We therefore recommend that the useful and positive values of Home Visitation Evangelism be conserved and that likewise other methods as suggested in the program of the Commission on Evangelism be carefully and conscientiously followed.

"We urge upon our ministers and laymen careful spiritual preparation for the work of Visitation Evangelism, so that those whom they win may come into vital relationship with Jesus Christ before they are received into the Church. Christian nurture is necessary for Christian growth.

"Conservation of Members. We regard with concern the number of members who, from different causes, are lost to the Church annually. We suggest to our pastors that in their preaching and especially when classes for membership are being instructed, that entering Christ's service be stressed as a life enlistment; that the new members be integrated early into the vital activities of the church; that in case of removal from the parish, the pastor shall not regard his responsibility as terminated until the parishioner has been safely folded elsewhere.

"Religious Education. One of the most promising movements of the modern church lies in her growth of religious education. We wish to commend especially that type of education that looks towards the full development of the personality, including an unreserved commitment to Christ and his cause, a consciousness of God and a knowledge of those things which make for the unfolding of Christian character.

"For the coming January the Board recommends the reading of I and II Corinthians, followed by the reading of the Gospel of Mark.

"It is further recommended that the reading of the Gospel of Mark be followed immediately with the Fellowship of Prayer until Easter.

"It is further recommended that a study of the Life of Jesus be made in the interim so that the influence of his rich personality may possess all our preachers and people."

4. The Board of Evangelism and Life Service of the Christian Church views with satisfaction its proposed merging with the commission on Evangelism of the Congregational Church as a consequence of the union of the two bodies as indicated by the Commission on Christian Unity.

It is gratifying to learn of the attitude towards our program and purposes, as shown in a letter of September 21st, to the Executive Secretary, from Frank K. Sanders, Chairman of the Commission on Interchurch Relations of the Congregational Church, in which he speaks relative to the proposed union as follows;

"Just a note, after reaching my home, to tell you how interested I have been by your detailed plans for Kingdom Enlistment Week, as set forth personally and in the literature you gave me. The united church will not let down in the promotion of such service, but only broaden the field."

After careful consideration of the work during the year now closed, as related to things accomplished, money obligations, and the proposed union with the Congregational Church, your Board of Evangelism and Life Service feels it wise to pursue the policy set forth as follows:

All monies received by this Department from all sources, shall be applied on reducing the indebtedness and paying assessments made by the General Board, with the following exceptions:

- a. A maximum of $150.00 shall be allotted to defray expense of Board meeting.
- b. The Executive Secretary shall receive, as remuneration, a salary of $100.
- c. The Board requests that the month of April, 1929, be the period for an appeal to our churches, Sunday-schools, etc., for funds, the last Sunday of the month to be the special day.
- d. No new debts shall be created.
- e. Office arrangements shall remain as at present.

The Board of Finance

REV. WARREN H. DENISON, D. D., Executive Secretary

All members of the Board of Finance were present at the Annual Meeting. The Secretary of Finance, Warren H. Denison, gave a report of the year's work. Budgets for the various boards of the General Convention were carefully studied. Each board and department in the church was instructed to see that those who handle its funds shall be properly and sufficiently bonded and that such bonds are renewed annually and that the record of the same be filed with the Secretary of Finance.

The secretary was instructed to secure funds for the Burnett Beneficiary Fund.

The Board held conferences with the secretaries of various departments so that it might sympathetically understand their financial problems.

The Board expressed its appreciation for the $500.00 which the Southern Convention contributed last year to the General Convention offering, and expressed the hope that that Convention might provide this year the entire $1,000.00 requested last year.

The Board called upon all the conferences and churches to speedily adopt and set in motion the new Convention Budget plan and to make every possible effort to reach their allotments. The need is pressing and the work depends upon the full amounts and regular monthly remittances.

The Board plans this year to create a wider knowledge among our people of the opportunities for them to provide funds for our benevolent agencies through annuities, wills, and insurance.

The Board urges all of our churches and pastors to make every effort to enlist a larger number of benevolent givers in their congregations. This is not only for the sake of more funds for the Kingdom, but for their own larger life.

The Board recommends that the General Convention Budget remain the same as last year—$200,000.00. (See conference allotments, page 21, 1928 Annual.)

The Christian Church has incurred various obligations, through the activities of its various enterprises, such as the indebtedness of The Christian Publishing Association, and the deficits of the General Convention, and the Departments of Foreign Missions and Home Missions. Additional funds are needed for the promotion of the departmental and other programs on a progressive basis. The Board, therefore, recommends that a financial campaign be inaugurated to secure adequate funds for the purposes indicated, and for such other purposes as may be decided upon later. (The Executive Committee later appointed a Committee to have this matter in charge.)

The Board recommends that the Christmas offering for 1928 be for all the organizations sharing in the Convention Budget; that the offering be distributed according to the regular budget percentages and that Dr. W. P. Minton be in charge of the promotion of the offering, assisted by the secretaries of the participating organizations. (The Executive Committee later voted that the five percent naturally going into the Reserve Fund from the Christmas Offering be allocated to Franklinton College.)

In harmony with the action of the General Board, the Board of Finance increased the budgets of the respective Boards and Departments by the five percent necessary to be paid on the account of The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

The Board recommends that Defiance and Palmer Colleges be granted the privilege of holding College Day, each in its respective territory, the third Sunday in October, beginning in 1929.

The Board recommends the following Budgets for the various Boards and Departments for the year:

The General Convention—$13,800.00. If a session of the General Convention be held in 1929, this budget should be increased one thousand dollars. The budget includes a deficit of $2,300.00.

Department of Home Missions. The Board of Finance recommends that the budget of the Department of Home Missions be the same as last year, including the deficit of $18,120.32. The budget in 1927 was $44,863.00. The Board of Finance believes that the amount appropriated to special work is too large in proportion to the amount appropriated to regular work, and recommends that a readjustment of these appropriations be made. The Board recognizes that the present obligations to the special work, and the need of this work, may make it impossible to make this readjustment at the present time.

Department of Foreign Missions. The Budget is $58,561.72. This budget includes a deficit of $10,561.72. The Foreign Mission Department contemplates the raising of five thousand dollars, in personal gifts, to take care of the reconstruction of property damaged in the Porto Rican hurricane. This amount is not included in the budget. The Board of Finance approves this program.

Board of Christian Education. Budget, $13,000.00. The Board of Finance believes that Boards and Departments should confine their financial campaigns to the allotted periods, and, therefore, does not approve the extension of time requested by the Board of Christian Education.

Board of Evangelism and Life Service. The Board of Finance approves the program of the Board of Evangelism and Life Service, including the allotment of its finances, and recommends that this Board be given the privilege of taking an offering the last Sunday in April, the same as in previous years. (To the above Budgets should be added the five percent necessary to be paid on the account of The Herald of Gospel Liberty.)

As the funds of the General Convention are not always adequate, and not always available, for the payment of current expenses, the Board of Finance recommends that the Treasurer of the General Convention be authorized to borrow money, when necessary, for the current expenses of the General Convention, and that the President and Secretary be authorized to affix the legal signatures of the General Convention to notes for the purposes of borrowing money.

The Board of Finance recommends that the deficit on The Christian Annual be apportioned on the same basis as last year, namely twenty percent each to The Christian Publishing Association, Board of Missions, Board of Publications, Board of Christian Education; five percent to Board of Evangelism, and fifteen percent to the General Convention.

The Board of Finance recommends that Boards and Departments share in the General Convention Budget, as follows: General Convention, 6 percent; Foreign Missions, 34 percent; Home Missions, 25 percent; Board of Christian Education, 25 percent; Board of Evangelism, 5 percent; Reserve Fund, 5 percent.

Christian Publishing Association

H. E. SIMS, Piqua, Ohio, President

Our Managerial report gives you a somewhat detailed report calling attention to the various departments of the Publishing House, calling attention to important points concerning each.

While the report must of necessity be brief as compared with the operation of our business for the year, yet we hope we have put it in such a way as you may be able to grasp the critical condition of our business.

OUR PUBLICATIONS

The interest in our publications the past year has been the greatest and most intense in our church history. At our last annual Board meeting October, 1927, we faced an alarming condition. The auditors' report showed the loss on The Herald for the year was	$16,848.36

On The Journal of Christian Education	3,702.36
On The Junior Herald	1,704.65

A total of	$22,255.37
The Sunday School Herald a profit of	105.70

A Net Loss on these publications of	$22,149.67

without considering the losses on The Christian Missionary which had been published by the Mission Board. The C. P. A. Board and the General Board were alarmed at the situation. It had been known for some months that the year would show great losses and a special committee had been appointed to consider ways and means by which the losses might be overcome. Without going into detail as to the consideration given by committees and Boards, it was decided to consolidate The Herald, The Christian Missionary, and The Journal of Christian Education and merge them all into one publication, The Herald of Gospel Liberty, and issue each month a magazine number of forty-eight pages and cover, and forty issues, one each week when the Magazine Number is not issued, each weekly issue being sixteen pages. The merger publications began January 1, 1928, and have been issued ever since. It took several months to make the adjustment of the several publications into the merged publications. There were many duplications, but adjustments were satisfactorily made almost without exception and the church membership with but few exceptions was well pleased with the merger.

The merger of our publications as applied to The Journal of Christian Education met with duplications. The major part of the Journal list was through the Sunday-schools. The merger sent the magazine number to many who were teachers, which caused many duplications. These duplications have been largely eliminated. The duplicates as it affected The Journal does not appear as quickly as in Missionary for two reasons, 1st, Because ordered by schools rather than individuals; 2d, Because ordered quarterly rather than individual expirations. The first quarter, January, showed 1872, which was the Sunday-school orders. The next quarter, April, many duplicates were cut off the list which went down to 1628. The July quarter showed duplicates were eliminated, bringing the school list down to 1459. The October list remains nearly the same.

Another thing which reduces the Sunday-school list is the passing of our schools into the graded lessons, several schools have done this the past year. Teachers of the graded lessons do not use the magazine as a teacher help.

Practically no complaint has been made by teachers because of the change from Journal to the magazine. Many schools should take the magazine that do not, and this is our field for expansion. The Department of Education has helped push the magazine and, working hand in hand, we see no reason why more of our schools should not be won to the magazine.

Last December we put on a Charter Membership Roll Campaign for The Herald, which was continued until the first week in March, 1928. This created more interest than any other campaign and with corresponding good results. The total number enrolled as charter members was 1,464, of these there were 518 new subscribers.

THE HERALD FINANCIAL SITUATION

The Herald financial situation by the merger has been very disappointing.

The net loss as shown by the bookkeeper's report is	$16,106.33
But this loss is after adding to the regular income The Herald Sustaining Fund of	1,072.50
And the percents paid in by the departments as ordered by the General Board amounting to	1,181.83
A total of	$ 2,254.33
Which must be added to the above loss, making
Total loss for the year of	$18,360.67
The losses on the S. S. Herald this year are	3,278.99
Making the total losses on the two Herald publications of	21,639.66
Making the losses on the merger publications	18,360.67
As against the losses last year on The Herald and Journal of Christian Education of	26,550.72
And estimated loss on Missionary of	2,000.00
Total loss of	22,550.72
Or net gain by the combination of	$ 4,190.05

Summing up and Commenting:

Two of our publications, The Herald of Gospel Liberty and The Sunday School Herald show strong losses for the year. The Herald of Gospel Liberty being the largest with a direct loss of $16,106.35. The Sunday School Herald loss figures are $3,278.99. The attempt by the Departments and the C. P. A. to stem the loss for the year by merging The Christian Missionary and The Journal of Christian Education with The Herald has shown some relief.

It would be a happy situation if the C. P. A. could continue to serve the church in the large way that it has in the past without asking any support from the church or its departments, but present conditions will not permit. Printing costs have more than trebled in recent years and revenues remain practically the same.

The Herald is the mainstay of the denomination and it is hoped that the church will be ready to respond and that this great messenger, which is the binding link that keeps the church organization intact, may be continued, for without it we would soon lose contact with each other and disintegration would soon follow.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

The orders for our own publications for the year were as follows:

	Total copies per year	Average copies per year	Total gain per year	Average gain per year
Bible Class Quarterlies	161,824	40,456	3,161	791
Young People's Quarterlies	53,330	13,332	845	211
Boys' and Girls' Quarterlies	28,990	7,248	2,390	Loss 597
Children's Quarterlies	9,500	2,375	400	100
Sunday School Heralds	707,837	13,612	131,222	2,524 (per quarter)
Now		14,500	subscriptions or
		188,500	copies

The tabulation shows a gain in circulation for the year of 131,122 or 2,524 per quarter (copies).

The cost of publishing The Sunday School Herald for the year was $11,-614.42 as against $11,924.23 for the Junior and Sunday School Herald last year.

The sales for the same period were $8,335.43, showing a net loss for the year of $3,278.99.

JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT

The heavy slump in the amount of commercial job printing during the past year has made the situation extremely hard to handle. The heavy loss on The Herald of Gospel Liberty and quite a large loss on The Sunday School Herald continuing as a year ago, placed the management in a more defenseless situation than for some time, in the face of the loss of about 40% in job work output, the overhead expense remained about the same. The cost of heat, rent, light, supervision, and clerical help could not be reduced to any degree, hence the overhead expense greatly lessened the profit of the printing department. The amount of job printing for the three years past shows up about as follows:

Job Printing Oct. 1925, Oct. 1926	$114,621.48
Job Printing Oct. 1926, Oct. 1927	123,527.02
Job Printing Oct. 1927, Oct. 1928	78,983.32

The heavy loss in volume of business, which is general throughout the city, has tended to increase production costs.

THE BOOKSTORE

The Bookstore has made a much better showing this year than at any time since it has been established. The saving is a result of a curtailment of the force through elimination of a special manager for the store and two assistants which was operative for only a month or so, netting a saving of about $300.00 per month. For the coming year the Bookstore, if the same volume of business is maintained, will show a profit of about $2,000 or more.

As a general rule, denominational bookstores do not pay, but their operation is more or less essential to the church at large in the way of effecting a contact with the church membership and the supplying of the necessary supplies to the churches, Sunday-schools, Endeavor Societies, and Missionary organizations.

The loss last year, according to the report of the auditor, was more than twice as large as this year, even in the face of a slump of $3,140.31 in the volume of business, due to general conditions.

Loss—Oct. 1926—Oct. 1927	$4,682.72
Loss—Oct. 1927—Oct. 1928	2,029.68

It has been the policy of the C. P. A. to send a representative to conference gatherings, which has always been a sacrifice in loss of money as the profits from sales do not cover the expenses incurred, but it affords a contact inuring to the benefit of The Herald, Sunday School Hera'd, Lesson Leaves, etc. It is the best avenue for personal contact that our organization affords.

THE BUILDING

All of the vacant rooms that existed a year ago have been rented which brings the total income up to $8,765.00, next year $9,150.00.

It has been thought advisable to rent the bookstore room to some commercial concern and transfer the bookstore to the fifth floor or chapel room. If this can be done the revenue derived could be applied on the building debt. If a renter can be obtained some $2,000.00 or more could be realized from the Bookstore Room.

REDUCTION OF OVERHEAD EXPENSES

For more than a year our attention has been directed to elimination of overhead expense and we are able to start the new year with a cut in overhead of more than $8,000.00. This reduction has been partially operative for a few months during the closing year and has materially helped in carrying on the business. There may be other places where savings can be made but only study and time will develop them. The main items included in this overhead reduction applicable to the new year will be:

Manager Bookstore	$2,800.00
Bookstore assistant	700.00
Bookkeeper assistant	1,200.00
Telephone	1,000.00
Janitor	1,000.00

Night Police	300.00
Miscellaneous	500.00
Total	$8,200.00

ASSISTANT MANAGER

Mr. T. B. Radabaugh, of West Milton, Ohio, became Assistant Manager last December, soon after the resignation of Mr. Chase became effective. He has been active in this capacity ever since, except for a few weeks' absence. The first part of July, Mr. Whitelock, the Manager, being on leave of absence, turned over the active management of the entire business to Mr. Radabaugh. He has proven to be very careful in working out details and very efficient in effecting savings in overhead and administrative expenses. Very much credit is due Mr. Radabaugh in reducing expenses. The Association has had no money to invest in an effort to increase our book and mail order business. The ability and integrity of Mr. Radabaugh has been shown as assistant and part of the time as acting manager, and this convinces the Manager that Mr. Radabaugh is competent in every way and reliable and worthy to become manager of the business of The Christian Publishing Association, and can without reservation recommend him to the brethren for that responsible and trying position. If Mr. Radabaugh is selected as manager, I shall turn over the business into his hands with a feeling of safety in his management and that the business will be honestly and economically handled.

THE DAYTON GUIDE ACCOUNT

At our last annual meeting I reported that in February, 1927, we had succeeded in collecting $9,000.00 on this account. That there yet remained unpaid $9,229.20. I continued my efforts to collect the balance from the Republican National Committee. I was assisted by Attorney John V. Sees, with whom I frequently advised. The last days of June, 1928, immediately preceding the expiration of the term of office of Wm. V. Hodges, Treasurer of the Committee, I received a check for $9,000.00 in full settlement of the balance of this claim. This payment again "saved the day" for the Association and enabled us to tide over until this time.

CLOSE MY WORK

With the collection of this claim I felt that I had about fully performed my obligations to the Association and to my brethren of the church. As I have before stated in this report, I believe we have found a capable man for the position of manager.

I close my duties as Manager, conscious of the fact that I have sometimes erred in judgment, but further conscious that I have had the hearty and unanimous support of the President and members of the Board of Trustees. I regret that our financial situation is as is set out in this report, but conditions caused it, that the manager could not overcome. We hope some plan will be found at this Board Meeting which will bring a satisfactory solution of our financial problems. My relations with department heads has been cordial and I have appreciated this fellowship and shall remember with pleasure the association and personal touch had with my brethren. I have had splendid co-operation from all those coming under the scope of my management.

I close my services as manager, thanking the officers and members of the Board for their sympathy and help amid the perplexing situations of the past few years. I lay down the burdens of the position I have held with the hope that better things are in store for the Association in the immediate future.

Sincerely,

(signed) O. W. Whitelock,

Manager.

Mr. T. B. Radabaugh was elected manager of The Christian Publishing Association for an indefinite term, his services to be terminated by either party giving three months' notice of desire for dissolution.

The committee elected by this Board to act with a like committee of the Board of Christian Education is composed of H. E. Sims and A. E. Kemp.

The following persons were nominated as editors of our Christian Education publications:

W. A. Harper, Editor-in-Chief of the Christian Education publications and assistant Editor of the Merged Publications.

Hermion Eldredge, Editor of Young People's Division and Managing Editor of Christian Education Publications.

S. Q. Helfenstein, Editor of Bible Class Quarterlies.

Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Editor of Children's Literature.

HISTORY OF THE CHRISTIAN DENOMINATION

By DR. MORRILL

The Board of Publications at its last annual meeting recommended the reprinting of this book on certain conditions precedent to be done by the General Board. The General Board decided it was not an opportune time to do what was requested of it, so nothing was done about republishing this book and we believe it was well, as there has been very small demand for this book the past year and the investment would not have been well made.

RECOMMENDATIONS

THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL FOR 1929

The Christian Annual for 1927 was printed under the plan recommended by the Board of Publications at the December Meeting, 1926, and proved to be a very satisfactory plan. I recommended the same plan for the 1928 Annual, to-wit:

First, That The Christian Annual be designated the Official Year Book of the Convention.

Second, That The Christian Publishing Association print the same at cost.

We recommended that the General Convention, through its secretary, as editor of The Christian Annual, be responsible for the cost of its publication which shall be paid by the General Christian Convention to The Christian Publishing Association, at the time of its issue; that the sale and distribution of The Annual shall be in the hands of The Christian Publishing Association; that after three months from the date of publication, the General Convention shall reimburse for the cost of printing and distribution, less the sales which have been made, by apportioning this difference to the several departments of the Convention and to The Christian Publishing Association on the following basis:

The Christian Publishing Association	20%
Board of Publications	20%
Board of Missions	25%
Board of Christian Education	20%
General Christian Convention	15%
	100%

We make one suggestion that we believe would materially lessen the cost of The Annual and would not affect its value, viz: Leave out all statements where there is nothing to report. By so doing the expense of printing the church reports might be reduced 25%

THE BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN THE FINANCIAL BUDGET

The Board of Publications has no funds except what come to it from the Forward Movement. This source has ended, "the fountain has dried up". While we yet have some funds on hands, we should now begin to plan definitely for the future. We ought to have a fund for printing more circulars, leaflets, and propaganda matter concerning the Christian Church, its principles and purposes; these should be for free distribution. We are furnishing quite a list of HERALDS and JOURNALS at the expense of this fund: this service should be continued.

But these are mere incidentals as compared with the need of a SUSTAINING FUND for THE HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY. This is an absolute necessity as appears more fully in the managerial report to the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association. The general budget for next year should provide a fund of $5,000.00 for the support of The Herald. Our church must be educated to give for our official publication. The Herald is a church publication and must be supported by the church in the same way that missions and education are sustained. In fact, The Herald is the leading medium of church education. It is also fundamental to missions. The church cannot live without its publications. Missions cannot live without the churches. Publications are fundamental in the life of the church. Our publications have been issued so long with the thought that they could be made to pay editorial and publication costs by the subscriptions received, that it will take some time to educate the church that they can be sustained only by the benevolences of the church. We have church people who will be glad to give to a Herald Sustaining Fund, as was clearly shown by the contributions made this year to this fund although practically no general appeal was made to the church. But a budget fund as suggested cannot be relied upon to maintain The Herald. It must be maintained out of Department funds already established until a sufficient sustaining fund can be secured.

PUBLICATIONS FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION

The booklets and tracts for free distribution remain about the same as a year ago. There has been but little demand for these the past year. Most of our people have these. Our field has been supplied.

Something new must be provided before we will have much demand.

* * * * *

The funds of the Board of Publications are loaned to The Christian Publishing Association.

We have done everything possible to help the Association continue our church publications.

Commission on Christian Unity

REV. F. G. COFFIN, D. D., Chairman

The past year has been the most fruitful in results, of any period since your Commission has been in existence. The correspondence on this subject, both within and without the church, has become voluminous, and many addresses have been made by members of the Commission, or by others appointed by them. Movements toward unity in other denominations seemingly are being revived, following the unusual depression in the popularity of this subject several years ago. A number of gestures, or semi-gestures, have been made among various bodies during the year. While the results from most of these movements are negligible in their sum total, the efforts do give evidence of struggling convictions, and are the prophecy of better things to come.

I. WITHIN OUR OWN CHURCH

For the education of our own people, several pieces of pamphlet literature have been issued and circulated. The copy for three others is in hand, and these will be issued shortly. One of these is on "Christian Union in Hometown" by Hermon Eldredge. Another "Christian Unity and Christian Youth" by Dr. W. A. Harper. The third is a pamphlet of information to be distributed in both Congregational and Christian Churches. It will deal with the history and meaning of our present movement, together and including information concerning the position and operation of both bodies. The usual material, more diversified, and we think stronger, was furnished our periodicals, so far as they were willing to use it, during the Christian Unity Period. Plans are already begun for the continuance of this campaign during the 1929 Unity period.

This period now has a more general observance throughout our brotherhood than heretofore. More inquiries and suggestions are coming to the Commission, and more teaching is being given in the local churches concerning it.

The financial response for the work of the Commission, and the sustentation of our interchurch relations is much neglected.

Nearly all of the conferences, and many smaller groups, have memorialized the Commission with expressions of endorsement of the proposed union with the Congregational Church, and the broader efforts with other communions.

II. INTERDENOMINATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Greetings have been sent by mail, or wire, to every general gathering of sister denominations where such meetings were known to your Commission. Greetings by personal representatives have been carried to a few. Articles upon unity have been requested of our men by some of their publications, as well as by interdenominational periodicals.

The Congregational and Universalist organizations corresponding to this Commission, joined us in an overture addressed first to those bodies with the congregational form of government for a conference to consider a possible closer affiliation among such denominations. Eleven communions responded with representatives at such a Conference, held in Washington, D. C., April 25, 1928. This was a gathering of fine inclinations toward closer relationship, but not all present believed that organic unity is yet a possibility. The group did reach the conclusion that any common form of government is not in itself a sufficient basis for a union of churches. The group which was unofficial, decided that it would be wise to call a meeting of representatives of all denominational groups represented in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, plus those attending the Washington meeting, to consider the same questions. Thirty-five communions were addressed with this invitation. The meeting was held in New York City, June 25th, with one representative each from seventeen different communions. The purpose was a survey of denominational attitudes, and a forecast of possibilities. Early in the discussion the fact that the Federal Council had in project at its coming quadrennial meeting some plan of closer relationship among its constituent bodies was mentioned. This seemed to make it wise to delay the organization of any general movement of this kind until it was known that the Council could not lead the way. Therefore, after a general discussion of the whole subject, the group asked a committee of seven, in which our church was represented, to confer after the Council session in December, and, if in their judgment, the situation had not been met, to call the group together again.

The relationship of the Christian Church to the Federal Council remains as close as heretofore, and our co-operation in all interdenominational movements has been increased during the year, if any change in the status has occurred. Our position and standing in these movements has been strengthened by our recent forward step with the Congregational Church.

III. GESTURES WITH THE CONGREGATIONALISTS

During the year four conferences have been held with representatives of the National Council of Congregational Churches. One of these was in connection with the representatives of the Universalist Church, two were incidental in connection with other gatherings, at which both had representatives, and the fourth by special arrangement.

Our Commission presented the form of proposals for organic union of the two bodies, which after conference and correspondence, was slightly amended into better mutual adaptation. This proposal is as follows:

THE CONGREGATIONAL-CHRISTIAN PROPOSAL

Recommendations Relating to the Organic Union of the Christian and Congregational Churches—

The undersigned representatives appointed from the Commission on Inter-church Relations of the Congregational Churches and the Commission on Christian Unity of the Christian Church believe that the hour has come when, in the interest of the Kingdom of God and of the larger usefulness of their respective denominations, these two communions should immediately take steps toward an organic union.

We therefore recommend to our respective Commissions, and through them, to the National Council of Congregational Churches and to the General Convention of the Christian Church:

1. That each of them at the earliest possible date take action endorsing an organic union between the Congregational and Christian Churches.

2. That the basis of this new relation shall be the recognition by each group that the other group is constituted of the followers of Jesus Christ. Each individual church and each group of churches shall be free to retain and develop its own form of expression. Finding in the Bible the supreme rule of faith and life but recognizing that there is room for wide differences of opinion among equally good Christians, this union shall be conditioned upon the acceptance of Christianity as primarily a way of life, and not upon uniformity of theological opinion or any uniform practice of ordinances.

3. That the autonomy of each local congregation and the right of each individual member to follow Christ according to his own conscience shall remain undisturbed.

4. That the United Church shall for the time being be called "Congregational-Christian," allowing each local church to continue the use of its present name if it so desires.

5. That as soon as this proposal shall have been ratified by the official bodies of the two organizations, a committee of equal number from each communion, adequately representative of each denomination, shall be appointed to study the whole situation carefully and to recommend a plan for the complete unification and management of their enterprises and program of work. In the meantime every possible step should be taken by the two Commissions to promote mutual acquaintance among the two constituencies and to canvass the practical questions involved in a merger.

6. That as soon as possible after the joint committee provided in the preceding paragraph is ready to report, a general convention including the two bodies shall be arranged, at which the report of the committee shall be acted upon. For this joint convention the executive committees of the two denominations shall make all arrangements.

7. The commissions recognize that numerous practical details will be involved. They are confident, however, that being united in purpose no insuperable obstacles will appear, and therefore propose that the two bodies go forward in mutual confidence.

FOR THE COMMISSION OF CHRISTIAN UNITY

FRANK G. COFFIN

LEON E. SMITH

FOR THE COMMISSION OF INTERCHURCH RELATIONS

FRANK K. SANDERS

CHARLES E. BURTON

These recommendations have now been approved by the Commission on Christian Unity of the Christian Church. The members of this Commission are:

Dr. F. G. Coffin, Chairman of the Commission, Columbus, Ohio.

Dr. R. C. Helfenstein, Dover, Del.

Dr. F. H. Peters, Defiance, Ohio.
 Dr. Alva Martin Kerr, Dayton, Ohio.
 Dr. L. E. Smith, Norfolk, Va.
 Dr. W. H. Denison, Dayton, Ohio.
 Dr. W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C.

In order to facilitate acquaintance, looking toward the consummation of this corporate union, a systematic interchange of personal representatives between gatherings of the two bodies has been arranged. Perhaps forty conferences of the two bodies have had representatives from the other body to address them. This strengthening of fellowship, in the judgment of your Commission, has been valuable. Many echoes of appreciation of these visits are heard in both churches.

Least there might be practical difficulties in the way of a corporate union, which the two Commissions had not foreseen, it was considered wise to bring the administrations of the departments of the two churches together for a minute consideration of ways in which the several departments of the two churches might be combined with effectiveness and without embarrassment. The heads of the six departments of the Convention, together with the Chairman of your Commission, met an equal number of officials of the Congregational Council, representing like interests in that body, in Washington, D. C., September 18 and 19. For two days and evenings, these groups counseled with each other on methods of co-ordination of work. No insurmountable difficulties seemed to be in the way of a complete corporate unity of the two denominations.

The tentative attitude in this whole matter of union with the Congregational Church ought to be settled as soon as possible. Mergers are already forming in local communities, educational institutions, and elsewhere. The whole question should be brought to decision at an early date.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Your Commission would recommend that this Board:

1. Approve the observance of the Christian Unity period more generally, and with greater enthusiasm.
2. Call upon our churches and members for a larger financial support of the Christian Unity program, and the funding of our membership in interdenominational organizations.
3. Approve the plan of a larger inclusion of denominations in an organic union and instruct its Commission to continue the utmost effort in this direction.
4. Approve the proposal of union between the Congregational and Christian Churches, and urge The General Convention of the Christian Church to adopt same.
5. Authorize the calling of a special session of The General Convention of the Christian Church not later than the fall of 1929, and that all arrangements for that meeting be left to the Executive Committee.
6. Urge our people to cultivate the spirit of Christian love and fellowship in every relationship that "they all may be one."

Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion

WARREN H. DENISON, D. D., Secretary

The General Board adopted the following recommendations of the Bureau of Christian Stewardship and Promotion:

1. A careful and thorough re-study of stewardship on the part of the members of the General Board, the presidents of our institutions, our denominational officers and secretaries, our conference officials, and church official boards.

2. That this Board recommend that all our churches and pastors observe the approaching stewardship period with a program for the whole church, culminating in an enlistment and enrollment of stewards at its close.

3. That this Board challenge several of our churches in different sections and of different sizes to become real stewardship churches and demonstrations or examples for other churches. We would summon some of our outstanding pastors to show what will actually happen in a church that really adopts Christian Stewardship principles and practices them.

4. That in harmony with the action of the United Stewardship Council, we ask all our schools, colleges, and our Divinity school to place Christian Stewardship in their curricula.

5. That again we urge upon all our churches the importance and value of the every-member canvass, not merely as a matter of raising a budget, but also as a matter of enlistment of forces and enrichment of spiritual life.

6. That all our Stewardship Secretaries be urged to arise fully to their high privilege of leadership in stewardship lines in their churches and conferences.

7. That our Christian laymen be requested to adopt in life and practice the Stewardship platform set forth by the United Stewardship Council.

Board of Control of Franklinton Christian College

W. A. HARPER, President

FINANCES

(a) General Statement.

The Treasurer of the Board, Hon. Ben T. Holden, shows receipts for all purposes from September 15, 1927, to October 4, 1928, amounting to $13,800.71. For the same period his report shows expenditures of $12,572.28. This leaves a balance in bank as of October 4, 1928, of $1,228.43.

Of these funds Rev. A. W. Sparks paid through his department $6,724.57, according to his record, and according to ours, $7,329.48, the difference being accounted for by the difference in period covered. Dr. Warren H. Denison remitted according to our account $534.56. The remainder of the money has come from personal gifts and from the Western Union Stock dividends.

There is a deficit of $1,898.00 reported by President Henderson to the Board of Christian Education, but this deficit was cared for by funds raised personally by President Henderson. This money was used not to pay professor's salaries for which the Board of Control obligated itself, but for the current operating expense of the school for which President Henderson and the colored conferences are responsible.

(b) Current Liabilities.

Merchants National Bank, Dayton, $4,000; General Convention, $5,000.00; Board Notes, $5,000; Franklinton Endowment Fund, $1,050; Dietrich Bros. Steel Company, $2,346.04; Total, $17,296.04.

We had hoped that we would be able to pay the account of the Dietrich Bros. Steel Company during the past year, but were unable to do so. We have been unable to pay interest on the loans due the General Convention and the Board Notes.

Other than this our situation remains the same as last year.

(c) Cottages.

Upon the recommendations of President Henderson, the Board of Control appropriated $800.00 to construct two cottages for professors. It was agreed that President Henderson could cut sufficient timber from the school property to furnish the rough lumber for those two cottages, but that further than this the Board of Control would not be obligated. These cottages when completed will cost $1,278.00 each, not including the equipment of the bathrooms. President Henderson has carried out his part of the contract and these cottages are paid for. It is understood that he will shortly raise the money to equip the bathrooms. The Board of Control certainly appreciates his fine work in this respect.

(d) Budget Requirements This Year.

The Board of Control must have if it pays the Deitrich Bros. Steel account and keeps its expenditures within the bounds of last year, in round numbers $15,000.00.

FACULTY

The following persons have been chosen to serve on the faculty at Franklinton this year: President, Rev. J. A. Henderson; Principal, W. R. Collins; Professors, T. H. Petway, J. P. Mangrum, F. B. Holt, Helen A. Taylor, Mozelle Ray and Alice P. Carter; Administrative officers, Novella Reid, Mattie Hoster, and Burette Mangrum.

The total cost of salaries for the year is $6,364.00.

In addition to these salaries, table board is furnished ten persons in the school dining hall and eight of these persons room also in the dormitory. President Henderson is allowed the use of Bishop Cottage free of rent and Principal Collins and Professor Mangrum are each allowed the use of one of the new cottages free of rent.

Professor F. B. Holt has been added to the Faculty this year as teacher of Bible and Religious Education.

TO COMPLETE DORMITORY

We reported last year that it would require $19,455.00 to complete the dormitory, and you authorized a loan of $40,000.00 to care for this item and the current liabilities, agreeing that the General Convention would endorse such a promissory note to be given some loan company and secured by First mortgage on the property, provided responsible colored men rated at $100,000.00 in the aggregate should first endorse said notes or bonds.

Soon after the adjournment of the General Board last year, I secured the promise of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company of Greensboro to make this loan. I so informed the President of the General Convention and President Henderson, who had agreed while the General Board was in session that he would secure this endorsement.

On October 11, 1928, he brought me a note for $40,000.00, payable over a period of ten years, with interest at 6 percent annually, falling due on March 1st each year and endorsed by four persons. I am immediately undertaking to investigate the rating of these men, and if it appears that they are worth the $100,000.00, notice is hereby given that the Board of Control will be called in session to authorize the loan and the papers will be presented to the officers of the General Convention for their signature and endorsement.

In this connection, I admit to you as information a letter received from Mr. Wood, the General Contractor of the dormitory.

GENERAL ITEMS

It will be interesting to you to know that according to information furnished by President Henderson, the Afro-Christian Convention numbers from thirty-six to forty thousand members.

You will be also interested to know that on September 20th Franklinton opened with 94 students, 84 of them being boarding students and 15 of them being ministerial students. President Henderson and Principal Collins estimate that when the crops are in, the enrollment this year will be 160, and 140 of these will be boarding students. This means that the new dormitory is an absolute necessity.

The water system of the college is in excellent condition, thanks to the services of Dean A. L. Hook, of Elon College, who gave this matter his personal attention.

It is estimated that there is a million feet of timber on the property. The Board of Control requests you to give authority to sell this timber, much of which is going to waste, on terms that may appear to it as equitable and to apply the same to the current liabilities of the school as listed above.

The Board of Control requests the Board of Christian Education to conduct this school year as in former years a Winter School of Religion.

The Board of Control recommends that a vote of thanks be extended Mr. J. W. Sellers of High Point, North Carolina, formerly of Warsaw, Ind., for his continued interest in and donations to the library.

Woman's Mission Board

The Woman's Mission Board is made up of thirty-four conference Woman's Missionary Boards besides the Woman's Board of the Southern Christian Convention, which is composed of five conference boards. Four local societies report directly to the Woman's Mission Board, where there is no conference woman's organization through which they can report.

The past year has been one of progress and advancement all the way along.

Through the General Mission Board the Woman's Board contributes to eleven main objects, Home and Foreign, for five of which we went "over the top" as regards our pledged gifts.

Through interdenominational co-operation, gifts were made to the migrant to the work of the logging-camps in Western Washington, to work for New Americans at Haverhill, to the Indian work at Fort Apache, Arizona, and to Franklinton Christian College, Franklinton, N. C.

Through the Foreign Department, contribution was made to the Sendai field in Japan and to Porto Rico.

Through interdenominational co-operation, gifts were made to the migrant work in cannery districts as directed by the Council of Women for Home Missions and to Christian colleges and Christian Literature for women and girls in mission lands through the Federation of Woman's Boards for Foreign Missions.

Our financial goal for the year was $25,000. Our receipts were over $27,000.

This gain at a time when there is general complaint of loss and deficit in so many organizations of our own and sister denominations is reason for pronounced gratitude to the constituency of the Board and for Thanksgiving to the One who has made this all possible.

More than financially has this been a year of success. Educationally we have advanced. Mission study books have been used in our homes, in local societies, in conference and district institutes, and helps and suggestions for missionary programs have been broadcast through our Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Our horizon is being extended through our contacts with the interdenominational and international woman's organizations for the hastening of the Kingdom, such as organizations for Law Enforcement and Prohibition and World Peace with all the implications that accompany these.

Realizing that there is a task for every follower of Christ, the women of the Christian Church desire to use every talent with which they may have been blessed, but it is always with the thought of co-operation and that of the most sympathetic kind.

Unity is our watchword. That we all may be one is our prayer.

The year has brought us great losses in valued workers. This loss can be overcome only by a closer fellowship with that One who brought victory in life and service to these loved ones who have been promoted.

Report of the Committee on the Merger

OF THE

HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY, THE JOURNAL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION, AND THE CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY

The Committee presented its report reviewing its work for the past year and recommended the following editorial staff for the coming year:

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor: Alva Martin Kerr.

Associate Editors:

W. A. Harper.

W. P. Minton.

Special Editors: (To serve in their respective departmental educational periods)

F. G. Coffin.

McD. Howsare.

A. W. Sparks.

Warren H. Denison.

Managing Editor: To be selected from the headquarters staff, nominated by the Executive Committee of the Convention and elected by The Christian Publishing Association Board.

Secretary to Managing Editor: Miss Genoa Wheatley.

It is understood under this arrangement that all the above editors are now employed in other departments in the service of the Christian Church on salary, except Dr. Kerr and Miss Wheatley and that all of the above with these two exceptions shall serve without additional salary and that the salary of Dr. Kerr shall be made by the special committee named above in conference with Dr. Kerr and the arrangement for the salary of Miss Wheatley shall be made by the Merger Editor in conference with the Merger Committee.

COSTS

Your Committee has interviewed a number of Publishing Houses in Dayton and in other centers and has secured comparative figures on the publication of this periodical. After considering these figures and propositions presented, we recommend that this committee or a committee to be named by the Board arrange with The Christian Publishing Association for the publication of the merged periodical for the year beginning January 1, 1929, on the basis of Exhibit A submitted at a cost not to exceed $14,690.00.

(See EXHIBIT A)

RESOURCES

Estimated receipts from subscriptions	$12,500.00
---	-------------

We recommend that the General Convention and each Department of the Convention (with the exception of the Department of Publishing hereinafter specified) contribute to the support of the proposed publication 5% of its total annual current receipts received for the regular work of the Department and that the Department of Publications contribute the same percentage out of its total invested funds. It is understood that we recommend the above contributions for the year 1929, and it is further understood that the percentage to be paid in 1929 will be figured on the basis of the current receipts of the departments for their regular work between October, 1927, and October, 1928, and that the payments shall be made quarterly from the Convention and its Departments and the finance board is authorized to add such percentage as a separate item to the budgetary askings of its several departments and these boards are hereby authorized to undertake to raise the same.

Estimated receipts from this source	5,200.00
---	----------

We recommend a special offering in November, 1929, for The Herald of $5,000.00.

Estimated receipts from this source	2,500.00
---	----------

We recommend the promotion of a special Herald subscription campaign running through the conference season and culminating on the Herald birthday in September for a total subscription list to the magazine of 10,000 and to the full Herald of 5,000.

Estimated additional subscription receipts from this source	1,000.00
---	----------

Estimated receipts from advertising of C. P. A. and others	1,000.00
--	----------

Estimated saving on editorial expenses	2,000.00
--	----------

Total estimated receipts	$24,200.00
--------------------------------	-------------

PROMOTION OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

It is proposed that a committee composed of the Managing Editor and Messrs. Radabaugh, Minton, Denison, and Eldredge be constituted for the purpose of securing subscriptions. The Managing Editor to act as chairman and clearing agent for the committee, Dr. Denison to promote subscriptions through pastors; Dr. Minton through Missionary organizations, and Mr. Eldredge through Christian Education organizations, and Mr. Radabaugh to act as consulting member.

It is proposed that when any one of these is ready to enter upon the campaign of promotion of subscriptions in his field that he submit the proposition in writing to the Managing Editor and go over thoroughly with him and agree upon the plan. If this plan is agreed upon, the one presenting same shall be responsible for carrying it out through the Herald Office. It is understood that the cost for the arrangement shall be charged to The Herald account.

We recommend that the following committee be named by this Board to continue the research and to be ready to report conditions and recommendations to the General Board or the General Convention at its next meeting and that The Christian Publishing Association give this Committee all information possible to this effect. The Committee to be composed as follows: Hermon Eldredge, Chairman; F. G. Coffin, W. P. Minton, O. W. Whitelock, H. E. Sims, and O. S. Thomas. This Committee shall have power to make contracts with The Christian Publishing Association in amounts not to exceed the budgeted items noted on Exhibit A herewith attached, and that they shall have power to make any changes or adjustments which experience makes necessary.

EXHIBIT A

Proposal submitted by The Christian Publishing Association to The General Board of the Christian Church through its Merger Committee, October 18, 1928.

The Christian Publishing Association offers to publish The Herald of Gospel Liberty in its present form on the following basis:

4,500 copies of 16 pages each at $160.00 per week equals	$ 6,400.00
8,000 copies (magazine) 48 pages at $700.00 monthly equals....	8,400.00
Total	$14,800.00
Mailing service	1,000.00
Postage	625.00
Cartage	65.00
Total	$16,490.00

Additional copies of the 16 page issue to be furnished at $3.00 per hundred. Additional copies of 48 page issue at $5.00 per hundred. Credit for elimination of 16 pages for magazine issue $150.00 a month or $1,800.00 per year. The above proposal includes cover cut for magazine number. Any other special cuts to be furnished without cost to C. P. A.

Committee's Note:

The above is the full proposition as submitted by The C. P. A.

The following items are additions by action of the General Board:

GENERAL BOARD ACTION

Proposal of Christian Publishing Association as above	$16,490.00

Statistical Summary of the Christian Church

Statistics are collected by the Conference Secretaries, and compiled in the office of the General Convention. Their accuracy, therefore, depends upon the faithfulness and care with which Church Clerks report to conference, and upon the persistency with which Conference Secretaries seek reports and the accuracy with which they tabulate them.

It is highly important that all churches use the Convention Church Report Blanks, and that all Conference Secretaries use the Convention Tabulation Blanks.

These are the statistics gathered by the 1928 Conferences. They will not always harmonize with official Convention reports, for Convention reports frequently include items not reported by churches and conferences.

When any church fails to report, it makes our report erroneous. When a clerk reports, "I don't know", or does not take care to gather complete reports, it makes our Church appear in a false light before the world. Statistics are to be turned into spiritual life, power, encouragement, service. We sincerely regret that a number of churches made no report to conference this year, and others gave very incomplete reports. All this is reflected in this summary. Churches and conferences should insist upon full reports. We thank all those faithful statisticians who realize the high value of their work.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

We have taken every reasonable care to make this directory reliable as to name, conference membership, and post-office address. There are inaccuracies and will continue to be until pastors inform us and their conference secretaries of changes.

Sometimes a minister is reported by Conference Secretaries as a member of two or three conferences so we cannot tell to which conference he really belongs.

The Editor of The Annual does not presume to say who are members of conferences. We have done our best to correct the list up to the time of going to press.

Some names have not been reported which we have reason to believe are members, but we have no way of knowing except through the Conference Secretaries.

Root & Siemens, Architect

The Country Club Christian Church

"I cannot refrain from expressing my sincere appreciation of the Kilgen organ erected for me at the Country Club Christian Church of Kansas City, as a Memorial to my wife. Its very purpose necessitated the selection of an organ which would approach perfection. Since hearing Mr. Powell Weaver play its dedicatory recital I feel that this Memorial Organ meets every possible requirement. Its workmanship and tonal qualities are perfect. My entire contact with your organization was not only a pleasure and a satisfaction, but it convinces me of your unmistakable desire to give the best possible, in every way."

Homer H. Berger.

After Forty Years

Time alone reveals the inherent qualities of superior craftsmanship. Will the organ you buy—today—give faithful service after forty years or more? It will if it is a Custom-Built Schuelke.

Our two generations of church-organ building assures that

Testimonials from leading churches confirm it
